Our Favourite Sparkling Wines

Hambleton is one of the oldest vineyards in England, starting in 1952. From the long line of heritage to the chalky sub-strata of the South Downs, Hambleton excel in making premium wines directly comparable to that of Champagne.

The beauty of the Perrier-Jouët Grand Brut Cuvée and its floral and fruity fragrances is an incredibly light and fresh champagne. Orange blossom, honeysuckle and sweet fruit flavours work with the subtle vanilla essence. Perrier-Jouët was the first House to experiment with producing dry Champagnes, giving birth to the legendary Brut style we know and love today.
